Warehouse stocks of refrigerated food products on February 1 totaled 6.3 billion pounds, 667 million pounds less than a month earlier. Supplies were 5 percent smaller than on February 1, 1965 but 5 percent more than the 1960-64 average for the date. Supplies were lowered during the month for all commodities except pork, juices, and nuts.

Total meat in storage on February 1 was 492 million pounds, compared with 484 million pounds a month earlier. Pork inventories totaled 157 million pounds, up 5 million from the previous month. Beef supplies of 260 million were about the same as the previous month.

Creamery butter stocks were down to 34 million pounds on February 1, the lowest for this date since 1957. Stocks were more than one-third below stocks of the previous month and a year earlier. The New England Region was the only area with an increase. The most significant decrease was in the East North Central where butter stocks decreased by more than 60 percent during the month. American cheese holdings were 258 million pounds after a January decline of 13 million.

Shell egg supplies totaled 76 thousand cases compared with 85 thousand on January 1 and 57 thousand a year earlier. Frozen egg holdings of 38 million pounds were 13 million less than a month earlier. All regions of the country had lower supplies than on January 1.

A gain of 4 million gallons raised supplies of frozen orange juice to 26 million gallons on February 1. The increase during January a year ago totaled 11 million gallons. Frozen fruit holdings declined to 476 million pounds -- 9 percent less than on January 1 but 6 percent more than the February 1 average. Supplies of all frozen fruits except apples were lowered during the month.

Space Occupancy in Public Warehouses

Utilization of freezer space declined 4 points during January to 60 percent -- 7 points less than on February 1 a year ago and 10 points less than average. Occupancy of freezer space declined during January in all regions of the country except the South Atlantic, which was unchanged and the Mountain which increased 2 points. The most significant decrease was in the Pacific Region where occupancy was 13 points lower than on January 1.

Occupancy of cooler rooms at 50 percent was 3 points lower than on January 1 and 5 points lower than average. In the East South Central Region, occupancy increased 1 point during the month but in all other regions it decreased.

Cooler and Freezer Stock Changes

Product weight in cooler rooms totaled 2.9 billion pounds on February 1, down 515 million from a month earlier. Holdings of all cooler-stored products were lowered during January except nuts which increased 58 million pounds. The February 1 total cooler weight was the third largest of record for the date, exceeded only by the holdings in 1965 and 1964.

Freezer-stored products, down 4 percent from January 1, totaled 3.4 billion pounds on February 1. This was 5 percent less than last year but 2 percent more than average. Except for gains in juices and pork, all frozen product weights were reduced during January. Vegetables, fruits, poultry, and butter showed the sharpest declines for the month.
